

THE REGISTER,

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY.

HENRY V. HOYER, Editor and Pub.
WM. MORGAN, - Local Editor.

Oelwein, Ia., Mar. 30, 1888.

HOME NEWS

Hamlin's for warm-meals.
Rice—The Decorator.
Old papers for sale at this office.
Hamlin's restaurant for oysters.
L. A. Loomis was in town Friday.
Fine coffee and tea at Marshall & Meyer's.
Mrs. Baker is visiting at Independence.
Call at F. O. Ryder's for fine Tea and Coffee.
Choice Teas and low prices, at J. F. Wilson's.
Photos at prices to suit the times at Schneider's.
Sewing machine supplies at the Furniture Store.
Elegant line of spring clothing, at McDonald Bros.
H. C. Sturgis Sundayed with his family in West Union.
You can bet on that 25-cent Japan Tea, at J. F. Wilson's.
A choice line of Cigars and Tobacco at F. O. Ryder's.
Go to A. B. Arnold's for fresh Oat Meal and Graham crackers.
J. H. Millard's furniture store is the place to buy Organs.
A new crate of Luster Band, McDONALD BROS.
Mrs. John Stansbury is visiting at West Union. J. S. goes up today.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miles have been visiting at Lansing, Ia. since Wednesday of last week.
The Family Benefactor is now supplied with almost everything under the sun. McDonald Bros.
John Miller, who went to Hammond, Louisiana, wishes the REGISTER to visit him weekly.
Peter Weber returned Tuesday, to Omaha, where he has spent the past two years working at the carpenter trade.

The clearing off of the timber northeast of the elevator has improved the appearance of that part of the town.
Easter exercises will be given by the Sunday school classes at the Baptist church Sabbath evening at the regular time of service.
The books of O. M. Bunce & Co. have been put in the hands of G. H. Phillips for collection. Give this your immediate attention and save trouble. O. M. BUNCE & Co.
The Scott Center creamery is being equipped with a new separator, steam boiler and engine, which will render it capable of doing a good business in the latest approved style.
All parties knowing themselves indebted to Hart & Barclay on book account, will please settle by cash or note at once, and save further trouble. FRANK BARCLAY.

J. W. Allen, who lives just east of Aurora, has sold his farm and had a public sale yesterday. He will in a few days start for Louisiana where he will make his future home.
Most all of the commercial men who travel along this route endeavor to reach Oelwein by Saturday night, so as to be at the Slocum House over Sunday. There were ten stopped there last Sunday.
CARD OF THANKS—We desire to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends who kindly assisted us during the last illness and death of our husband and father.
MRS. ELIZABETH CAMMACK & FAMILY.

A choice line of confectionery is always to be found at Hamlin's restaurant. His aim is to keep on hand the best cigars, tobacco, oranges, lemons &c. &c. Warm meals and oyster stews served.
Sheriff Iliff, of Buchanan county, closed a saloon at Hazleton and sold its contents Monday. A. G. Bell and Al Spears were at Hazleton Monday, and both purchased some of the articles. Rise up and explain, gentlemen, what use you will make of the purchased articles.
Frank Kint and wife, and Ed Kint took the evening train Friday for Independence. Ed returned Saturday, and Frank and wife stopped off at Hazleton and visited with Mrs. K's parents for a few days. It looked rather suspicious Ed, but then we hardly think anything serious will happen.

Established in Oelwein in 1876.

BEN A. BARNES,

Watchmaker, Jeweler and Engraver.

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry & Silverware.

Dr. Julius King's Celebrated Combination Spectacles and Eye Glasses.

The Finest Optical Goods in the World.

Call And Have Your Eyes Tested.

SEWING MACHINE OIL AND NEEDLES.

The Helpmate Sewing Machine.

Organs at Millard's.
We have had rather diversified weather of late.

A good line of Tobaccos, at J. F. Wilson's.

Dick Goen is assisting at S. C. Kenyon's lumber yard.

Elegant window shades at Millard's furniture store.

A. J. Johnson has commenced the erection of his feed mill.

Orr Lee has been nursing a boil on his right hand for some time.

Fresh Bananas, and fine Mexican Oranges, at 35cts per dozen at A. B. Arnold's.

Little Maud Anders has just recovered from a severe attack of the lung fever.

Miss Myra Fenner is visiting friend and relatives at Edgewood for a couple of weeks.

Call at the furniture store and examine designs and get prices before buying monumental work.

Boils seem to be the style. Henry Martin sports the latest out, and wears it on his neck. Necktie.

Try some of that Pudding Preparation, Pudding for six, only 15 cents, at Marshall & Meyer.

It is estimated that three thousand head of cattle, valued at $42,000, have been shipped from this point within the past year.

Geo. S. Spaulding, of Nashua, manager of our extensive elevator, was here in the interest of the elevator company's business, Monday.

When, by reason of a cold or from any other cause, the secretory organs become disordered, they may be stimulated to healthy action by the use of Aver's Cathartic Pills. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

W. U. Watson returned Wednesday to his home at Quasqueton. He has engaged for the season with a publisher, in the sale of books, at a remunerative salary.

A car load of Sugar Creek Lime just received at S. C. Kenyon's lumber yard. Those contemplating using lime will do well to look at this before purchasing.

G. W. SMITH.

Mr. A. Y. Wikoff was at West Union last Friday. He says they nominated delegates to the state convention without his knowledge or consent and therefore went up to have it righted.

Wm A. Wachtel has an announcement in our columns this week that will please everybody. He has just received a large stock of most excellent goods and is prepared to furnish you anything you wish at astonishing low prices.

Next Monday night is the date set for the installation of the recently organized K. of P. lodge. About twenty members of the West Union lodge will assist in the initiation of the members. Guests from other lodges are expected to be present. Arrangements are being made for a banquet to commemorate the event, and a fine time is anticipated.

DIED.—At his residence in Oelwein, Fayette county, Iowa, March 26, 1888, Rev. Wm. Cammack, aged 77 years, 5 months and 6 days.

Mr. Cammack leaves a wife and eight children to mourn the loss of a loved husband and father. Funeral services were held in the F. B. church, conducted by the Rev. B. F. Paul who delivered an appropriate sermon from the words, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." Deceased was born in Withe county, Virginia, October 20, 1810. In the same year his parents moved to Mercer county, Kentucky, where he remained until 1835 when he came to Vermillion county, Illinois, where in 1836 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Bennet. In 1840 he with his family moved into Wisconsin. In 1877 he came to Oelwein where he resided until his death. Early in life he embraced the christian religion and was united with the church and was acting in the cause of Christ until the infirmities of old age compelled him to cease his labors.

For first-class work, see Rice.

Job printing at REGISTER office.

All kinds of canned goods, at J. F. Wilson's.

The public school commences again next Monday.

Maple Syrup $1.00 per gallon, at J. F. Wilson's.

Ben Hough did business at West Union Saturday.

New line of spring Dress Goods, at McDonald Bros.

Subscribe for the REGISTER, only $1.50 per year.

Miss Irvine is visiting with relatives and friends at Independence, Bargains in winter Goods. McDONALD BROS.

A. S. Todd made a trip to Lamont Friday, returning on the night passenger.

Miss Bertha Longfield, of West Union, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, has been visiting them this week.

If you want a good sewing machine buy the high arm Davis, at Millard's.

The door of the post office is now ornamented with a new letter box.—a matter of convenience.

You will find choice Saur Kraut, Pickled Hocks, and Horse-radish at Wilkinson & Cragin's meat market.

Dr. Greenwood, the Dentist, administers laughing gas, and vitalized air for the painless extraction of teeth.

Mrs. Jos. Bennett, of Waterloo, and Miss Glafay, of Michigan, Ind., were the guests of Mr. Sturgis Monday while waiting for trains.

Mrs. Lucas received the sad intelligence Saturday that his father was dead. He took the first train for Illinois where his father resided.

The A. O. U. W. lodge took supper Saturday night at Hamlin's restaurant. A number of members of the order were present from Fairbank.

L. S. Hamlin is building an addition 18x16 on the rear of his restaurant. He intends to veneer the remainder of his building this spring.

Ed Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cross, is making an extended visit here with his parents. His home is at Des Moines, where he is in business.

Unlike patent medicines whose virtues exist only in print, those Photos which C. C. Hillman makes are something to be proud of and will bring you constant pleasure.

The conductors and brakemen on the C., St. Paul & K. C. are said to be dissatisfied with the new management of the road, and a number of them quit work recently, in Dubuque.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to us on book account, will please call and settle at once, as we are in need of money and must have it.

HANCOCK BROS. & Co.

The freeze Thursday and Friday of last week rendered the toboggan slide in good condition, and quite a number of the young folks availed themselves of the last opportunity of the season for a toboggan ride.

Phil Schneider is now established in his new gallery, and is able to do better work than ever before, as he has better light and better conveniences. Customers, old and new, are cordially invited to call and examine work.

Many of the farmers have exhausted their supply of hay and are constrained to buy baled hay. Jamison Bros. have already handled eleven car-loads, and the demand is likely to increase from now until grass.

Laughing Gas for painless extractions of teeth. All branches of dentistry executed in a workmanlike manner at reasonable rates and warranted by W. F. Bissell, of West Union, who will furnish return tickets to those having $5.00 worth of work done.

GOOD NEWS.

W. A. WACHTEL

Was in Chicago last week and bought the finest line of

SPRING and SUMMER GOODS

ever brought to

OELWEIN.

The Goods are piling in every day; also the

Millinery Department is open in full Bloom with an Elegant Line.

If you want to see the largest stock of GOODS, the choicest styles, and buy your GOODS CHEAPER then ever before, go to

Wm. A. Wachtel's.

Centennial Brick Block.

Largest Double Store Rooms in Fayette county.