

Margaret Huff, died at Scottsdale January 7, 2006 after a short illness related to recurrence of Melanoma. Born Margaret Rathjen at NYC May 21, 1921. Graduate Queens College, NY. Master Library Science Univ. Wisconsin. Navy WAVE WWII. Married Kenneth 1946 and lived in Milwaukee WI until relocating in Scottsdale in 1999. Librarian University School Milwaukee, and organizer and leader of History Library Hartford WI. Award winning quilter and avid needle crafter. Pianist and life long choir member; always an active volunteer in many charitable organizations as well as at the retirement community where she lived. Survived by husband Kenneth, Linda and Charles Redman of Tempe, Edward and Judy Huff of Beaverton OR and four grandchildren, Memorial to Hospice of the Valley, 5111 N. Scottsdale, Scottsdale 85250, or Classic Residence Foundation Scholarship Fund, 7501 E. Thompson Peak, Scottsdale, AZ 85255

MESSINGER